President's Welcome

Greetings in the name of our reigning Lord Jesus Christ! Thank you for your interest in Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary. We hope you will find the necessary guidance needed as a student with us.

Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary is committed to informed scholarship with a pastoral heart. Both through our distance learning program and for students who choose to move to Owensboro Kentucky and study with us here, we are committed to offering the highest quality of scholarship. Though we teach our courses with pastoral ministry in mind, we also teach them with an eye to current trends in important theological debates.

CBTS is founded on a commitment to the 1689 Baptist Confession. For us it is the finest historic confession available to the church today. CBTS fully subscribes to it and ensures that all our teaching remains faithful to it. In this way you may be assured that the teaching you receive through CBTS is not novel, but reflects the great tradition of Reformed Baptist thought growing out of the Reformation.

The Lord Reigns,
Dr. Sam Waldron, President

Vision Statement

Our vision is to see the church of the Lord Jesus Christ strengthened and expanded worldwide, to the end that Christ would be known, loved, and exalted.

Mission Statement

Our mission therefore is to help the church to prepare men to undertake the full range of pastoral responsibilities they will face in serving Christ and His kingdom, and to equip Christians for effective service in the church. We do this work by providing rigorous academic training and by facilitating extensive pastoral mentoring.

Philosophy of Theological Education:

<https://cvtseminary.org/about/a-biblical-philosophy-of-theological-education/>

Values Statement of CBTS

Our mission will be carried out in a manner that adheres to the following core values:

(1) The church worldwide ought to embrace its God-given duty to prepare its own future leaders (2 Tim. 2:2). Followers of Christ should all see this as a privilege for perpetuating, purifying, and extending the gospel to all nations and generations.

(2) Each local church ought to involve itself in the equipping of men for pastoral ministry. The local church is best positioned to recognize, develop, assess, and confirm the spiritual giftedness of men aspiring to that office.

(3) Men being considered for pastoral ministry preparation must exhibit, at least in emerging form, the character, gifts, and graces prescribed in passages such as 1 Timothy 3, Titus 1, Acts 20, 1 Peter 5, etc.

(4) The pastoral ministry requires thorough, comprehensive, and balanced training. Preparation should not be shallow, nor should it be skewed either towards exclusive pastoral experience or exclusive academic studies.

(5) Theological instruction must be Bible-saturated, Gospel-centered, confessionally grounded, and led by godly, experienced, Reformed pastors and scholars. We are committed to the 1689 Baptist Confession of Faith as the best and most wholesome summary of the truth of God's Word.

(6) The Lord Jesus Christ gives a variety of gifts to His church and providentially opens a diversity of opportunities for the exercise of those gifts. We ought to recognize and accommodate differences in giftedness and possible futures for those being trained.

(7) The desire and appropriateness to pursue theological training may not match an individual's financial and practical ability to undertake that training. To the extent possible we ought to assist each individual and adapt the training program in order to encourage participation by needy brethren.

(8) All that the seminary undertakes must be performed with the highest regard to biblical standards of righteousness, integrity, faithfulness, compassion, and total dependence on the grace of God. We are stewards of the gifts of God's people, and we are servants of the great Head of the church, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Distinctives

God-Centered

Since all things exist for the glory of God, CBTS attempts to be God-centered and God-glorifying in all that it does. The earth is a theatre for God's glory. CBTS exists to be a conduit through which God gains fame for his own name's sake.

Intensively Christ-Focused

Since the central redemptive thrust of Scripture is the glory of God through the person and work of our Lord Jesus Christ, CBTS will be intensively Christ-focused in all that it does. We want our students focused upon what God is focused upon. God's focus on the earth is the revelation of his Son in order that he might bring many sons to glory. This attempt to be Christ-focused permeates all our classes and institutional endeavors.

Law-Gospel Oriented

Since future pastors must minister to both the lost and the saved and since both the law and the gospel apply to both groups of men (though in different ways), CBTS will be law-gospel oriented in all that it does. We will train our students to be skillful masters of the crucial distinctions between law and gospel and how each relates to various kinds of men.

Confessionally Grounded

Since we want to recognize and identify ourselves with what Christ has been doing in his church throughout the centuries, CBTS is a confessionally grounded institution. We are committed to providing ministerial training in a confessionally based environment. We adhere to the Second London Confession of Faith, otherwise known as The 1689 Baptist Confession of Faith. This time-proven document keeps us accountable to the myriad of worthy theological voices of the past and preserves us from the whims of novelty.

Pastorally Concerned

Since our primary goal is the training of future pastors, CBTS is keenly aware of the crucial need to be pastorally concerned and to mentor men throughout their educational experience. All of our professors are either pastors or former pastors. In addition, all students will be involved in a personal, pastoral mentoring program.

Globally Minded

Since the Christian gospel was designed to be propagated throughout the earth, CBTS is committed to being globally minded. God is in the business of making worshippers from all the peoples of the earth. Therefore, CBTS seeks to foster global-mindedness in all its students. It is our desire to produce missionaries and church-planters for all nations of the earth.

Carefully Positive and Intentional

Since Christ is doing the work of building his church and training future pastors in many places, CBTS recognizes the worthy labors of other institutions. We support and seek to cooperate with those who are doing the much-needed work of training men for the Christian ministry. We are whole-heartedly committed to being carefully positive and intentional in such relationships.

Technologically Informed

Since we live in a technologically advanced age and since technology can be used for promoting the cause of the gospel, CBTS is committed to being technologically informed. We realize the importance of staying in touch with and utilizing the various useful mediums of communication available. To this end, CBTS has a website (www.cbtseminary.org), a blog (www.cbtseminary.org/illumination), and an on-line student portal (www.cbtspathway.org). We utilize technological resources to record video for many of our courses. These courses are available on the internet for distance learning.

About Us

History

In 2001, under the leading of God's gracious providence, Pastor Sam Waldron reached the conclusion that he should pursue doctoral studies to better equip him in preparing men for the ministry and in serving the church through his writing ministry. Consequently, he left the Reformed Baptist Church of Grand Rapids where he had been a pastor for 24 years and moved to Owensboro, KY. In 2005 he completed his dissertation and received his PhD from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Through the shared vision of Dr. Waldron and Pastor Ted Christman, Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary began that same year on the campus of Heritage Baptist Church in Owensboro as the Midwest Center for Theological Studies.

Since its beginning as MCTS and now as CBTS, a board of directors has governed the seminary in cooperation with the host church. This board was composed of confessional Reformed Baptist pastors carefully selected for their godly vision, pastoral experience, and representative breadth. Our board currently includes pastors Fred Malone, John Miller, Ronald Miller, Jim Savastio, Mike Waters, Ben Carlson, Tom Hicks, John Divito, Chris Sheffield and Jorge Rodriguez Vega as well as one deacon, Mike Spickard. It has given invaluable wisdom and guidance to the seminary over the years.

As our institution continued to develop, the Board determined that it was time for a name change which would more clearly identify who we are. Thus, in 2014 our name was changed to Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary. This name makes clear that we are an institution dedicated to the preparation of men for the Christian ministry in the Reformed and Baptist theological tradition. At about the same time Dr. Waldron became the dean of the seminary while continuing in his role as the resident professor of Systematic Theology. He also gladly serves as a pastor of the Grace Reformed Baptist Church of Owensboro.

Our curriculum is both academically and pastorally oriented. We offer a full theological curriculum in our MDiv program for those who are or who aspire to be vocational pastors. We also offer several other programs designed to help both pastors and members of local churches to develop their gifts and serve their churches more effectively.

It is our burden to see the gospel preached to all peoples of the earth. We want to see existing churches built up and new churches planted both here and abroad. Our desire is to train men who will be able to pastor in such a way as to stir up a thirst for God in those they minister to in order that they might spread the good news of Jesus Christ to all peoples in all lands for the glory of God.

Licensure and Accreditation

Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary has been exempted from licensure as a religious institution from the Kentucky Council of Postsecondary Education.

Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary is an Affiliate institution of the Association of Reformed Theological Seminaries. As such, it participates in and contributes to collegial and professional development activities of the Association, and is committed to the quality of education ARTS promotes. Affiliate status does not, however, constitute, imply, or presume ARTS Commission on Accreditation accredited status at present or in the future.

The Association of Reformed Theological Seminaries Commission on Accreditation voted to grant ARTS Accreditation Status to CBTS at their annual meeting on October 3, 2019. Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary is now a fully accredited member of ARTS.

Academics

Admissions

Application and Enrollment

Students may enroll in CBTS in one of our seven programs. These programs are available for either resident or distance learners. Individuals are also permitted to audit courses at the discretion of the Academic Committee or the course professor.

To be considered for admission into CBTS, please fill out the application form. We also require a letter of recommendation from your Pastor for all pastoral track students (Master of Divinity, Bachelor of Divinity, Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies, & Diploma in Pastoral Studies). Once we have received your application form and the accompanying application fee, the Office of the Academic Dean will review your application. We will then contact you and conduct an initial interview in person, by phone, or via teleconferencing. After your interview, you will be contacted within 2-4 weeks about the status of your acceptance into the program.

Previously completed courses from other recognized educational institutions may be granted for credit upon the review and acceptance of our Academic Committee.

Admissions Policies and Procedures

Master of Divinity or Bachelor of Divinity Students: The special mission of the Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary is to minister to men who aspire to the vocational Christian ministry. These men will be enrolled as Master of Divinity or Bachelor of Divinity students. The paragraphs below address the special procedures for the acceptance and care of such students.

The Bible makes clear that some men are so gifted by God that they should labor vocationally as a pastor or minister of the Word of God (1 Cor. 9:14; Gal. 6:6; 1 Tim. 5:17). The primary purpose of CBTS is to provide a thorough theological education for men who are presently in the pastorate and those who aspire to the vocational Christian ministry (2 Tim. 2:2).

Admission as a Master of Divinity or Bachelor of Divinity student to CBTS requires first that the pastor or elders of the prospective student's church recommend him as a legitimate aspirant to the vocational ministry. They may do so through a written letter detailing their assessment of his aspirations. The Office of the Academic Dean of CBTS must then approve the prospective student by means of an interview examining his fitness for enrollment at CBTS. For practical purposes, this interview may be conducted over the phone.

Admission entitles the student not only to take classes for credit at CBTS, but also includes the special pastoral help and oversight which such an aspirant to the Christian ministry requires. Of course, this status and the oversight it entails only continue as both the elders of the student and the faculty of CBTS view the man's aspirations as appropriate and legitimate. In other words, this status continues only as long as they view him as a potential, vocational pastor.

Ordinarily, only men who are at least 21 years of age, hold a bachelor's degree and are members in good standing of an evangelical church shall be eligible for acceptance to the Master of Divinity program. Those meeting these qualifications without a bachelor's degree shall be eligible for acceptance to the Bachelor of Divinity program. The administration of CBTS reserves the right to waive any or all of these entrance requirements or to decline the application of any applicant to CBTS at its own discretion.

The requirement that a man's aspirations to the vocational ministry be deemed legitimate and appropriate is not to be construed to mean that his pastor or elders are certain that he will definitely labor full time in the gospel ministry. The intent of this language is simply that the pastor or elders not view such aspirations as misguided because of some observable and significant deficiency in his Christian life or abilities. No man should be engaged in studies for the gospel ministry when an area of glaring weakness in gift or grace makes it unlikely that he will ever be qualified for the Christian ministry.

Accordingly, acceptance as a Master of Divinity or Bachelor of Divinity student does not require that a man's gifts or graces be so mature or evident that his church is ready to free him from a secular vocation in order to study on a full-time basis. It is our expectation that many men in their first years of study at CBTS will take classes on a part-time basis. One of the seminary's purposes is to assist men who cannot study full time. Modular classes and distance learning are perfectly suited for such students.

MDiv opportunity for students who do not hold a bachelor's degree

Students who meet the following criteria may apply to enter the MDiv program:

1. Student must be at least 30 years old.
2. Student must have completed at least 50% of the BDiv program.
3. Student must have a minimum GPA of 3.3.
4. Student must agree to complete at least 12 credit-hours/year in the MDiv program.

The application fee for this program will be $100.

Students in this program who fail to complete the 12 credit-hour/year requirement without reasons deemed legitimate by the Academic Committee will be moved back into the BDiv program.

BDiv students who have transferred undergraduate level courses into our program will only be eligible to enter the MDiv program if they forfeit those transfer credits.

Students desiring to apply for this program should contact the Dean of Students and ask for an application.

Master of Arts in Theological Studies or Diploma of Theological Studies:

Individuals who do not aspire to the vocational ministry are welcome to enroll in CBTS and take courses for credit as Master of Arts in Theological Studies or Diploma of Theological Studies students. All these students must complete an application form and be accepted by the Office of the Academic Dean of CBTS. Continuation as a student is subject to the discretion of the faculty and administration of CBTS.

Similar to the Master of Divinity program, usually only individuals who are at least 21 years of age, hold a bachelor's degree and are members in good standing of an evangelical church shall be eligible for acceptance to the Master of Arts in Theological Studies program. Those meeting these qualifications without a bachelor's degree shall be eligible for acceptance to the Diploma of Theological Studies program. The administration of CBTS reserves the right to waive any or all of these entrance requirements or to decline the application of any applicant to CBTS at its own discretion.

Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies or Diploma of Pastoral Studies: Individuals who are in the process of having their ministry calling assessed or would like to prepare for vocational ministry by being introduced to the basic essentials of pastoral preparation are welcome to enroll in CBTS and take courses for credit as Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies or Diploma of Pastoral Studies students.

Admission as a Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies or Diploma of Pastoral Studies student to CBTS requires first that the pastor or elders of the prospective student's church recommend him as one being assessed for pastoral ministry or as a legitimate aspirant to the vocational ministry. They may do so through a written letter detailing their assessment of his aspirations. The Office of the Academic Dean must then approve the prospective student by means of an interview examining his fitness for enrollment at CBTS. For practical purposes this interview may be conducted over the phone.

All of these students must also complete an application form and be accepted by the administration of CBTS. Continuation as a student is subject to the discretion of the faculty and administration of CBTS.

Similar to the Master of Divinity program, usually only individuals who are at least 21 years of age, hold a bachelor's degree and are members in good standing of an evangelical church shall be eligible for acceptance to the Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies program. Those meeting these qualifications without a bachelor's degree shall be eligible for acceptance to the Diploma of Pastoral Studies program. The administration of CBTS reserves the right to waive any or all of these entrance requirements or to decline the application of any applicant to CBTS at its own discretion.

Master of Arts in Reformed Baptist Studies: Individuals who have earned a master's degree from another seminary, but wish to extend their studies in theology particular to Reformed Baptists are welcome to enroll in CBTS and take courses for credit as Master of Arts in Reformed Baptist Studies students.

All of these students must also complete an application form and be accepted by the Office of the Academic Dean of CBTS. Continuation as a student is subject to the discretion of the faculty and administration of CBTS.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary seeks to promote an academic community where all members – students, faculty, and staff – are treated with courtesy, respect, and dignity. The seminary seeks to promote a learning environment free from all forms of conduct that can be considered discriminatory, harassing, coercive, or abusive. These behaviors violate a person's dignity as an individual made in the image of God. This policy is central to our mission as a learning community marked by Christian integrity and love. CBTS does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, age or national or ethnic origin, in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship, and other school-administered programs.

Student Conduct

All students of Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary are expected to conduct themselves at all times as mature Christians. Student conduct is under the supervision of our Academic Dean. CBTS reserves the right to turn down or to dismiss students whose conduct fails to conform to the ethical norms and principles set forth in Holy Scripture.

Academic Integrity Policy

CBTS assumes that all of its students desire to pursue all academic work with honesty and scholarly integrity. Breaches of academic honesty and integrity are infringements of the mutual faith and trust essential to the academic enterprise and are inconsistent with the profession of faith upon which the student was admitted to the seminary.

Activities that have the effect or intention of interfering with education, pursuit of knowledge, or fair evaluation of a student's performance are prohibited. Examples of activities include, but are not limited to, the following definitions:

- Cheating - Using or attempting to use unauthorized assistance, material, or study aids in examinations or other academic work, or preventing or attempting to prevent another from using authorized assistance, material, or study aids. Examples: using a cheat sheet in an exam; altering a graded exam and resubmitting it for a better grade, and so on.
- Plagiarism – Using the ideas, data, or language of another without specific and proper acknowledgment. Examples: misrepresenting another's work (paper, report, article, or computer work) as one's own original creation and submitting it for an assignment; using someone else's ideas without attribution; failing to cite a reference or to use quotation marks where appropriate, and so on.
- Fabrication – Submitting contrived or altered information in any academic exercise. Examples: making up data, misrepresenting data; citing nonexistent or irrelevant articles, and so on.
- Multiple Submissions – Submitting, without prior permission, any work submitted to fulfill another academic requirement. Example: submitting the same paper for two different classes without the instructors' express prior approval.
- Misrepresentation of Academic Records – Misrepresenting or tampering with or attempting to tamper with any portion of a student's transcripts or academic record, either before or after coming to CBTS. Examples: forging a Registration Form or a grade report; tampering with computer records, and so on.
- Facilitating Academic Dishonesty – Knowingly helping or attempting to help another violate any provision of this code. Example: working together on an exam or others' assignments intended to be an individual project without the instructor's express or prior approval.
- Unfair Advantage - Attempting to gain unauthorized advantage over fellow students in an academic exercise. Examples: gaining or providing unauthorized access to examination materials (either past or present); obstructing or interfering with another student's efforts in an academic exercise; lying about a need for an extension for an exam or paper; continuing to write even when time is up during an exam etc.
- Computer Crimes - Damaging or modifying computer programs without permission. Examples: piracy of copyright protected software; hacking; constructing viruses; knowingly introducing viruses into a system; copying programs and data belonging to others, and so on.

Those students whose work definitively can be shown to breach academic honesty or scholarly integrity will face academic investigation. Sanctions will be imposed, ranging from grade reduction to course failure to dismissal from the school. No progressive nature is necessarily implied in these sanctions. A first offense may result in dismissal from the school, depending upon the nature of the offense.

Counseling Services

Students are encouraged to discuss any personal matters and seek desired guidance from any faculty or staff member.

The seminary staff will make every effort to assist student's needs (physical, personal, psychological, emotional, spiritual, practical, or relational), but does not offer counseling services.

Academic Advising

Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary is committed to assisting students throughout the entirety of their educational experience, from matriculation and enrollment through graduation and becoming alumni.

Students are encouraged to reach out and request assistance from the school Registrar or Dean of Students for any counseling needs. CBTS' Counseling program is available for and designed to help the student stay on track and reach their individual goals, whether they be personal, ministry related or educational goals.

The Dean of Students & registrar lead and direct in planning the student's academic coursework and serve as a guide for the student's educational experience. They work with the student to select the correct courses which fulfill specific degree requirements, are most reasonable with the student's current life circumstances, and appropriately prepare the student for future ministry.

Students are encouraged to touch base with either the Registrar or Dean of Students at least on a semester basis to ensure they are on track for completing their graduate degree.

Students should contact their counselor if they have any of the following questions:

- Which courses should I take in the upcoming semester?
- Which Graduate Program is the best fit for me?
- How many electives can I take within my degree?
- What mentoring requirements are necessary for me to complete my degree?
- Are their prerequisites for certain courses?
- Can I switch degree programs?
- Can I transfer credits toward my degree?
- What should my course load be with where I am at in life?
- Financially, what does my education look like?

Since nearly all students are distance education learners (online), they are encouraged to schedule a phone appointment with either the Registrar or Dean of Students. This can be done by emailing the Registrar's Office at registrar@cbtseminary.org.

Grading Policies

Grading Process & Policy (Live Courses)

Because of class sizes, responsibilities, and time demands, it is not guaranteed that the professor will grade all papers, projects, assignments and exams personally. CBTS does utilize Grading Assistants, those students or graduates who have already completed a degree at the level at which they are grading and remain a student in good standing. For instance, those who have obtained a Master of Divinity degree will occasionally complete grading for specific courses within the MDiv Program. They may also grade courses which they have completed that are required for other programs. This means that no student will grade for a course that he is currently enrolled in or has not yet completed.

The Grading Assistant operates under the oversight of the Professor and within the professor's parameters. The professor gives the fields of assessment and grading key, offering any assistance to the grader which might be needed.

Professors will calculate, manage and finalize all grades. At the end of each course, students will be notified of their official grades via the professor or the Registrars Office. All course grades must be turned in no later than 3 weeks from the due date of the last course assignment.

For CBTS Pathway Courses, unless otherwise specified, a grading assistant perform the grading under the supervision of the Academic Dean and Registrar's Office.

|----------|----------|----------|
| A 96-100 | B+ 88-90 | C+ 78-80 |
| A- 91-95 | B 85-87  | C 75-77  |
|          | B- 81-84 | C- 71-74 |

Minimum GPA policy:

Students must maintain a minimum Grade Point Average of at least a 2.0 (2.0 GPA). Those who have an average which falls below this minimum will be automatically placed on academic probation until the GPA is raised above the probationary level. This means if a student completes a course with a grade below 75 %, they will not be given credit for that class and they will automatically be placed on academic probation.

For the student to remove the probationary status, he must retake the course and complete it with a passing grade, which means 75% or higher. This means, the student can either request a directed study, retake the course in CBTS Pathway, or wait until the course is offered again. The maximum time limit which a student may remain on probation is 3 years.

Once the course is completed, credit will be given to the student and they will be in good standing with CBTS. If the student drops below the minimum GPA for 2 consecutive terms or does not complete the course within 3 years, they will be suspended for 1 academic year. The student will be informed of probation and/or suspension in writing.

While a student is on probationary status, they are not considered to be in good academic standing with CBTS.

Class Delivery Methods

The following are all the delivery methods which CBTS utilizes to facilitate student's education.

- Live Courses: Courses in which students are physically in a classroom with the professor, sitting under instruction and communicating with their instructor in a physical location.
- Live Streaming Courses: Virtual Classrooms using video conferencing software enable student interaction with the instructor and other students and provide immediate feedback from the professor and learning through student interaction. This format is a mixture of traditional learning format and distance learning format. Retaining a traditional course schedule and meeting time with the convenience of attending the course at your home or office with a computer.
- CBTS Pathway: Pathway simplifies the process of taking courses by providing step by step direction and enabling a more efficient progression in meeting the course requirements. CBTS Pathway frees the non-traditional student from a set schedule and expectation of meeting at a physical location on a regular basis. This method enables students to complete coursework and watch lectures from their computer and workspace, by logging into our online learning platform and following its instruction.

- Modular Courses: Modular courses are shorter than a regular semester course, typically their duration is 3-5 consecutive days. Each day of a module is a full day of lectures, coursework and studying. Modules can start and end on any week during a semester, however they are normally offered at the beginning or end of a semester. Modular courses contain the same amount of coursework per credit hour as other courses.

Tuition and Fees

- Application and Initial Registration Fee: $100 for new students.
- Semester Enrollment Fee: $350 per semester for all students.

- Graduation Fee: $200.

Financial Aid

Understanding that students might be prevented from receiving a theological education for financial reasons, the Seminary offers scholarships that are based on financial need.

A student may request financial aid through the Financial Assistance Request form found on the student resource page of the CBTS website. Once the request has been made, proof of financial need may be required. Our Student Assistance Committee will review scholarship requests and respond within 2-4 weeks with their decision. Scholarships are given solely at the discretion of the Student Assistance Committee.

Financial Aid Policies and Guidelines****

- (1) All student financial assistance will be approved by the student assistance committee.
- (2) Student financial assistance will be considered only for those students who request it and will not be proactively offered before a student makes known their need for financial assistance.
- (3) All financial assistance will be given only in response to a formal application to the student assistance committee. The application form will be approved by the committee and be placed on the website.
- (4) All student financial assistance will be limited to aid with semester fees and tuition.
- (5) The total student financial assistance for each fiscal year will be limited to the budget approved amount except where special approval is sought from the chairman of the financial committee.
- (6) Each year the budget shall include a line item for student assistance.
- (7) If an applicant is closely related to a member of the budget committee, that member will recuse himself from discussions related to the financial assistance of that applicant. The meaning of “closely related” for this purpose of this policy will be determined by the members of the committee not related to the applicant.
- (8) None of the restrictions placed on student financial assistance shall be construed as restricting a church or churches from offering assistance to a student through benevolence, pastoral internships, or other such positions.
- (9) These guidelines will be openly stated in the catalog of the Seminary.
- (10) The student financial assistance committee will meet once at the beginning of each CBTS semester but will meet more often as necessary. The committee may grant financial assistance by convening via email outside of the semi-annual meetings.
- (11) At the semi-annual meetings the funds available for student assistance in the budget will be reviewed and any requests for student assistance considered. Additionally, in the July-August meeting the committee will decide on its recommendation for the amount of the scholarship assistance line item in the annual budget.
- (12) The annual financial report provided to the CBTS Board at the March meeting each year will include a report of student financial assistance granted in the previous school year.

*Policy created and approved by the committee May 24, 2018.

Refund Policy

Students dropping a Live Streaming Course or a CBTS Pathway Course prior to the forty-fifth day of the course will receive a 50% tuition refund. This does not include any fees paid to the institution, such as semester or application fees. Student choosing to drop after the forty-fifth day will not be refunded any amount of tuition.

50 % tuition refund prior to day 45 of any course

0% tuition refund at day 46 of any course

There is no withdrawal date and no refunds for modular courses, except in the case of emergencies, extreme circumstances and events.

Official Transcripts

In order to validate program prerequisites and transfer credits (if applicable), official transcripts are required within 30 days of application. Copies or student-issued transcripts may be used during the enrollment process for preliminary evaluation; however, they are not considered official.

To be considered official, transcripts must be sent to CBTS via one of the methods:

- The educational institution sends the official transcript directly to CBTS via postal mail, electronically or
- The educational institution sends the official transcript to the student in a sealed envelope, and the student sends the sealed envelope to CBTS. (If the seal is broken before arriving at CBTS, the transcript will not be considered official)

Digital transcripts should be directed to registrar@cbtseminary.org

Physical transcripts should be directed to:

Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary

1501 E 26th St.

Owensboro, KY 42303

Students who fail to ensure that all official transcripts have been submitted to CBTS: (1) may not be admitted to a particular CBTS degree program or be allowed to continue in the program, (2) will not be permitted to graduate until they have ensured that BTS has received all of the required official transcripts.

Student Evaluation

Class Attendance (Live classes)

Students are required to attend all scheduled class meetings for live classes unless their absence is approved in advance by the course instructor. If a student has over four unexcused absences during a course, then he shall be placed in the status of academic probation and must meet with the dean. CBTS reserves the right to dismiss students who fail to consistently attend class meetings.

Grading System

No student will be deemed to have successfully completed the work in any course who does not achieve a cumulative grade of 75 or above for his course work. The letter equivalents for the percentile grades assigned are as follows:

|    |        |    |       |    |       |
|----|--------|----|-------|----|-------|
| A  | 96-100 | B+ | 88-90 | C+ | 78-80 |
| A- | 91-95  | B  | 85-87 | C  | 75-77 |
|    |        | B- | 81-84 | C- | 71-74 |

Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies or Diploma of Pastoral Studies

The Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies and Diploma of Pastoral Studies programs are designed to give students the essentials for planting and pastoring churches. While more training is normally preferable, it is not always suitable to each man's gifts, calling, and circumstances. Additionally, pastors may desire to assess and mentor men aspiring to the ministry without committing them to a fuller degree program.

A total of 35 credit hours is necessary to complete this curriculum, which students are expected to finish within 4 years. Since this program stresses the importance of pastoral mentoring and practical experience, two of the 35 credit hours are achieved through ministry preparation with the student's pastors. This curriculum includes courses from the four branches of the Encyclopedia of Theology.

Mentor Requirements

Mentors play an absolutely vital role in enabling CBTS to prepare faithful men who love our Lord to become faithful shepherds of His sheep. All students in the MAPS/DPS program or the MDiv/BDiv program must have a mentor. The following are the guidelines for each program.

A variety of resources for students and their mentors are available at cbtseminary.org /student-resources /pastoral-mentoring.

MAPS/DPS Student Mentoring Guidelines

The Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies program involves a partnership between Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary and local churches. In addition to the 33 hours of academic instruction, the program mandates a minimum of 200 hours of pastoral mentoring and practical experience, overseen by one or more of the student's pastors. This character-molding, hands-on aspect of training is structured around the biblical qualifications of 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1 and includes a quarterly assessment of the student regarding his progress in godliness and service. Students must log their hours and provide a record to CBTS signed by their mentor.

Spiritual Maturity and Character

Quarterly Meetings: Student will meet with pastors at least once a quarter for assessment in spiritual maturity and character. Includes personal spiritual health, marriage, family, and witness to outsiders. (Minimum of 16 hours)

Preaching and Teaching

Quarterly Preaching: Student will preach at least once a quarter in some venue, preferably a worship service. Pastors will provide encouragement in strengths as well as constructive criticism for improvements for each sermon. (Minimum of 48 hours*)

Weekly Teaching: Student will teach at least two 13-week Sunday School classes. If the church does not have a Sunday School hour, some other venue of regular teaching must be determined by the pastors and accepted by CBTS. If possible, feedback from class members is encouraged. (Minimum of 52 hours*)

Evangelism: Student will regularly engage unconverted people with a view to sharing the gospel outside of the church. These opportunities will be assessed by the pastors of the student at their quarterly meetings. (Minimum of 16 hours)

* Preaching and Teaching hours include preparation time.

Other Pastoral Responsibilities

Worship Service Planning: Student will coordinate all aspects of a worship service at least once a quarter, including music, prayer, Scripture reading, and preaching. (Minimum of 8 hours)

Pastoral Counseling: Student will sit in on pastoral counseling sessions at least once a quarter. This should include different types of counseling and include pre-marital counseling. (Minimum of 8 hours)

Weddings: Student will help his pastor at least once as he prepares for a wedding. This should cover all aspects of a gospel-centered wedding. (Minimum of 2 hours)

Funerals: Student will help his pastor at least once as he prepares for a funeral. This should cover all aspects of a gospel-centered funeral. (Minimum of 2 hours)

Ordinances: Student will assist in the preparation and performance of at least one baptism and Lord's Supper. This should include all aspects of the ordinances. (Minimum of 4 hours)

Visitation: Student will go with pastor at least once a quarter to visit church members and others. This should include hospital visits, visiting shut-ins, and family visits. (Minimum of 16 hours)

Hospitality: Student will open up his home at least once a quarter to host members in the church and those outside of the church for the purpose of evangelism and edification. (Minimum of 8 hours)

Meetings: Student will attend pastor meetings at least twice a quarter and deacon meetings at least once a quarter. He should also learn how to lead in these meetings. (Minimum of 20 hours)

MDiv/BDiv Student Mentoring Guidelines

(for students who are not currently pastors)

The primary goal of CBTS is the training of future pastors. This training involves a partnership between Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary and local churches. In addition to the 92 hours of academic instruction, the program mandates a minimum of 500 hours of pastoral mentoring and practical experience, overseen by one or more of the student's pastors. This character-molding, hands-on aspect of training is structured around the biblical qualifications of 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1 and includes a quarterly assessment of the student regarding his progress in godliness and service.

This pastoral mentoring should expose the student to the full range of pastoral responsibilities and provide opportunity for practical experience and assessment from the mentor. Each semester, the mentor and student should develop an agreed upon plan concerning specific responsibilities and opportunities (see examples below). The student is responsible to record the dates/hours, have them verified by their mentor, and submit them to the registrar at the end of each semester.

Spiritual Maturity and Character

Quarterly Meetings: Student will meet with pastors at least once a quarter for assessment in spiritual maturity and character. Includes personal spiritual health, marriage, family, and witness to outsiders.

Preaching and Teaching

Preaching: Student will be given opportunities to preach in some venue, preferably a worship service. Pastors will provide encouragement in strengths as well as constructive criticism for improvements for each sermon. (See sample sermon evaluation forms below).

Weekly Teaching: Student will be given opportunities for regular teaching (for example, during a 13-week Sunday School class). If possible, feedback from class members is encouraged.

Evangelism: Student will regularly engage unconverted people with a view to sharing the gospel outside of the church. These opportunities will be assessed by the mentor at their quarterly meetings.

Other Pastoral Responsibilities

Worship Service Planning: Student will be given several opportunities to coordinate all aspects of a worship service including music, prayer, Scripture reading, and preaching.

Pastoral Counseling: Student will sit in on pastoral counseling sessions when able. This should include different types of counseling and include pre-marital counseling.

Weddings: Student will help his pastor as he prepares for a wedding. This should cover all aspects of a gospel-centered wedding.

Funeral: Student will help his pastor as he prepares for a funeral. This should cover all aspects of a gospel-centered funeral.

Ordinances: Student will assist in the preparation and performance a baptism and of the Lord's Supper. This should include all aspects of the ordinances.

Visitation: Student will go with pastor to visit church members and others. This should include hospital visits, visiting shut-ins, and family visits.

Hospitality: Student will open up his home to host members in the church and those outside of the church for the purpose of evangelism and edification. These opportunities will be discussed with the pastors at their quarterly meetings.

Meetings: Student will attend pastor meetings and deacon meetings. He should also learn how to lead in these meetings.

MDiv/BDiv Student Mentoring Guidelines (for students who are currently pastors)

The primary goal of CBTS is the training of pastors. We recognize that some of our students are already currently engaged in pastoral ministry. While already involved in the work of the ministry, these students would also benefit from the wisdom and experience of pastors who have served in pastoral ministry for a longer period of time. Thus, students who are currently pastors are to seek out a more experienced pastor to be their mentor. If a local mentor cannot be found, the mentor relationship may be conducted at a distance.

The student and his mentor should meet quarterly (either in person or through telephone and/or video conferencing) to discuss both aspects of spiritual maturity (including personal spiritual health, marriage, family, and witness to outsiders) and ministry competency (preaching, teaching, counseling, worship service planning, visitation, weddings, funerals, leading various meetings, etc.). The mentor is also expected to listen to 12 sermons over the course of the student's time of study and provide helpful feedback to the student.

Appendix A: Student Resource Fees

CBTS Distance Students who do not have access to a seminary (or equivalent) library must have at least a Bronze level Logos package. We have worked with Logos to provide two custom packages for our students that we feel will be of great benefit to them. CBTS students also have access to Galaxie, a database including 33 conservative theological journals.

This is how our Resource Fees are structured:

- Beginning January 2020, each student will be responsible for a Resource Fee in addition to the Semester Enrollment Fee.
- Students who choose access to our Bronze package will pay $120/semester for four semesters. After those four semesters the Resource Fee will be $25.
- Students who choose access to our Gold package will pay $300/semester for four semesters. After those four semesters the Resource Fee will be $25.
- Students who already have a Bronze level or above Logos package, or can demonstrate access to a seminary level theological library will be responsible for a $25/semester fee.

When a student graduates, the Logos license becomes theirs to keep. If a student drops out, CBTS will retain the license.

We worked hard to get as many of our required textbooks as possible included in both packages. Most of our texts that are available through Logos are included in both packages, though there were some that we just weren't able to get at the price we wanted. The textbooks included in the Bronze package would cost over $1,000 if purchased through Amazon.com.

We strongly recommend that MDiv/BDiv students choose the Gold package, as the additional resources should be of great benefit both in your studies and in future ministry.

The contents of each CBTS custom Logos package can be viewed at www.cbtseminary.org/resource-fee/
